

Arts, Crafts League Has First Exhibit at Bank in Chester

The first exhibition of the Arts and Craftsmen's League of Delaware County opened Saturday in the Delaware County National Bank, Chester, with practically every community in the county represented.

The exhibit, arranged by Samuel Newsome of the bank, includes 35 pictures in oil, water colors, and tempera. Leather goods, jewelry in silver, ceramics, and sequins, handpainted china and glassware, textile painting, lampshades, metal painting, tiles, modeling, and wood-carving. The handcarved wooden model of a ship and a sculptured head add to the interest of the display.

The group, organized November 10 at the home of Mrs. E. T. Brogan of Glenolden who has since been elected president, is open to all residents of the county interested in this work. It is a non-profit organization that meets at homes of members on the second Friday afternoon of each month. Its sole purpose is to create countywide interest in arts and crafts.

Exhibitors include Mrs. Brogan, Mrs. Charles Dennis, Mrs. A. Allen, and Mrs. H. Fricke, all officers of the group; Dr. Ray Wallick, William Mattera, Mrs. George Baker, Mrs. D. Flood, Mrs. P. Evans, Mrs. M. Keene, William Mohr, Mrs. E. Kalbach, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Thorn, Miss M. Jaisohn, Cyril Gardner, M. Foot Gardner, Mrs. S. R. Cummings.

Mrs. Mary Leiper, E. E. Kelly Jr., Frank Doran, Mrs. Robert Neave, Miss Constance Cochran, Miss Ruth Robinson, Mrs. Nathaniel Saller, Mrs. E. Harris, Mrs. M. J. Houser, Mrs. E. Rothfuss, Mrs. Walter Grove, Mrs. E. Chapman, Mrs. A. Wolf, Mrs. Ralph Wood, and Mrs. George Pedlow.

Exhibits may be arranged without cost for woman's clubs, libraries or organizations. The present display will close Jan. 31.

CRAFT EXHIBIT IN BANK WINDOW

A display exhibition of arts and crafts has been scheduled by the Arts and Craftsmen League of Delaware County. The exhibition will be held in a display window for two weeks starting Monday at the Delaware County National Bank.

The League, formed in November, will show paintings in oil and water color by members and guest painters, according to Mrs. Catherine R. Brogan of Sharon Hill, president of the group.

The craft display will include: ceramics, leather goods, silver jewelry, tiles, hand-painted china, painted canware, textile paintings, wood carving, glass paintings, boat models, and lampshade making.

The League meets monthly in the homes of its members. On the executive board beside Mrs. Brogan are: Mrs. Charles Dennis, vice president; Mrs. A. Allen, treasurer; Mrs. Howard Fricke, secretary.

Art, Craft Exhibit To End Saturday At Noon

The exhibition sponsored by the Art and Craftsmen's League of Delaware County may be viewed at the Delaware County Banks, this city, until Saturday at noon, it was announced this morning, by Mrs. Catharine R. Brogan, president.

The show, which is the first given by the league, includes a number of paintings, pieces of sculptor and exhibits of hand crafts, including jewelry.

The exhibitors are: Mrs. Brogan, Mrs. Helen Wood, E. B. Kelley, Jr., Frank Doran, Miss Constance Cochran, Mrs. Katherine Neave, Mrs. Leland Thorn, Dr. Ray G. Wallick, Mrs. Helene Baker, Mrs. Elizabeth Parvin, Mrs. Albert Wolfe, Mrs. Edward Rothfuss, Mrs. D. Flood, Mrs. W. Davis, Mrs. Florence Boote Gardner, Miss Muriel Jaisohn, Mrs. M. Leeper, Mrs. M. Houser, Mrs. Laura Dennis, Mrs. Albert Allen, Mrs. Nathaniel Saller, William Mohr, Miss Ruth Robinson, Mrs. Marjorie Dutton, Leland Thorn, Mr. Mattera, Mrs. Howard Fricke, Mrs. George Pedlow, Mrs. Kay Grove, Mrs. C. Chapman, Mrs. P. Evans, Mrs. R. Kalback, Cyril Gardner, Mrs. Sarah Cummings, Mrs. Alma Harris, Mrs. Jane Lilly, Mrs. C. MacCracken and Mrs. Eelsberre.

Crafts Display In Bank Lobby

Work by members of the Arts and Craftsmen's League of Delaware County will be on display in the lobby of the Delaware County National Bank for the next ten days, it was announced by Samuel H. Newsome, bank representative in charge of the exhibit.

Paintings, jewelry, ceramics, leather goods and many other articles are on display throughout the bank lobby. This is the first time the league has been invited to exhibit at the bank although this is just one in a series of art displays which have been arranged there.

Mrs. Catharine R. Brogan, of Glenolden, is president of the league; Mrs. Charles Dennis, Wallingford, vice-president; Mrs. H. Freike, Yeadon, secretary, and Mrs. A. Allen, Ridley Park, treasurer.

There are about 40 pictures in oil and water colors as well as several pastels hung in the bank. In the display case are pieces of jewelry, painted china, painted glasses, ceramics, fancy earrings, hand-painted hankies, scarves and aprons, and 14 pieces of different leather goods including a leather covered umbrella.

Woman's Club at Glenolden

It was announced that a number of members attended the show given by the Art and Craftsmen's League of Delaware County, in Chester. Mrs. E. T. Brogan, a member of the Glenolden club, is president. Two oil paintings by Mrs. Brogan were on display at the meeting.